3. Dear Maggie,

I saw the news on TV that a serious earthquake hit Taiwan on February 6, 2016. I was so sad when I found out. Then I heard that a lot of engineers from my country went there to save people. I also learned that people here were raising money to help those in Taiwan. Like them, I donated money because Taiwan helped my hometown when a serious earthquake hit here in 2011. I thank Taiwan from the bottom of my heart, and I believe we can get through this hard time together.

Ninomiya from Sendai, Japan

 Hi Ninomiya,

Although the center of the earthquake was in Kaohsiung, Tainan was the most seriously hit. From the news, I saw not only engineers but also rescue dogs from Japan. I learned that the people in your country have donated millions of US dollars to Taiwan since the earthquake hit. I truly believe Taiwan and Japan are friends because we always help each other. Thanks!

4. Mark : I can't believe it! We have a week all to ourselves.

Reba : I know. It has been too long since the last time. Also, my mom just called and gave me an update on the kids. They're really enjoying themselves, so we don't need to worry about them.

Mark : That's good to hear, and to be honest, I haven't thought about them at all. We need to thank her when we get back.

Reba : Why don't we pick her up something? She will love it.

Mark : That's a great idea! Let's do that in the middle of the week because it's going to be wet and windy.

Reba : I agree, and that's also the perfect time to visit the museum and culture center.

Mark : I can live with that, but I also want to spend one whole day at the beach.

Reba : Of course! There won't be any clouds in the sky tomorrow or on our last day here, so we can do that on either day.

Mark : Earlier will be better because it will be warmer.

Reba : OK, then on the other day, we can go flying kites. A shop between our hotel and the beach sells them.

Mark : Sure! I haven't done that in ages, and maybe we can get the kids some.
